CHARLOTTE, N. C.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CHARLOTTE, N. C., October 14.—One of the most elaborate social functions of the season was the luncheon given Friday afternoon by Mrs. J. O. Gardner, at her home in Piedmont Park, in honor of Miss Fanny Lardner Moore, an October bride-elect. The party, and dining-room of the handsome Gardner home were beautifully decorated, a bridal chariot and wedding bells giving a suggestion of a coming event. The Richardson Orchestra furnished the music for the occasion and the luncheon was furnished by the Lenny Cafe. In cutlery, the two immense, heart-shaped cakes, Misses Moore and Sater cut the rings, Miss Nash and Mrs. Gardner, the coins, and Miss Mills, the button.

A quiet home wedding took place at the residence of the bride Wednesday evening, when Miss Ella Hisslop became the wife of Mr. W. J. Pinger, Rev. Dr. J. R. Howerton officiating. The young couple are both socially popular and have many friends here. They left in a chariot after the ceremony for Luke's place to spend their honeymoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Moore have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mary, one of the most popular young women of the city, to Rev. Robert Calvin Betts. The wedding will take place Wednesday evening, October 18th, at the home of the bride-elect's mother at Sanlis.

Mrs. J. H. Howell entertained at cards Friday afternoon, complimentary to Mrs. Harry Shaw, Mrs. Fred Oliver and Miss Oliver.

Miss Leslie Baker and Mr. Marous Mooney were married at Hickory Methodist Church, in the county, Wednesday evening.

The bride is an accomplished young lady and the groom is connected with the bank at Cherryville.

The Three Necessary Factors to Make Strictly First-Class Pianos—

EXCELLENCE OF TONE,
ELASTICITY OF ACTION, DURABILITY,

are, without exception, found in all the Pianos that go to make up the Cable Company's line. Every one of the necessary units that go to make up the whole perfect manufacture of Cable Pianos has been carefully studied out. The material is selected with due care; the labor combines years and years of experience, insuring none but the best workmanship.

NORFOLK SOCIETY.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, VA., October 14.—There have been several marriages this week and a few receptions. There have been many visitors, the majority of them in consequence of the wedding, but still the chief diversion of the members of society has been that of welcoming the latest arrivals among those who have been away for the summer. Some of them have been abroad and of course they must be treated with peculiar and prolonged distinction. But all of them have some importance whether they have been far or stayed long. Thus, like a young widow, coming out of the deepest grief, society has begun to take deep note. Soon there will begin the round of entertainments and amusements which are to occupy the day and the night. There will be two German clubs for the stated and periodic dances, and there are enough marriages announced and in prospect to secure intervening receptions, great parties to occupy the intervals. There will be no dull times after the luncheons and the parties of the season shall have begun. There will be a constant change from one pleasure to another.

Arrangements have been completed for the series of five Germans to be held at the Pine Beach Hotel during the season under the auspices of a new German club in Norfolk, among the men of the younger set. The first will be a Horse Show German on the night of Saturday, October 22nd. The Virginia football game will be played Saturday afternoon, and many of the Horse Show visitors will remain over Saturday to see the contest and to attend the German at the Pine Beach Hotel at night.

Mrs. J. P. Frazer and Miss Belle De Treare are guests at "Highland Lodge."

The apple shippers are still busy sending off every day many car-loads of fruit to Northern and Western markets.

The storm and high winds of Monday injured a large amount of fruit; hundreds of barrels of apples were blown off, and are now only fit for elder or apple butter. Each night may be seen the bright lights and jolly, merry-making around a single butter kettle, when the neighbors gather to help each other with his "apple butter bill."

The amount of fruit which will be wasted can scarcely be estimated, so many of the fruit farms being too far from the station to haul the second-class fruit.

The political meeting at the Afton House last night was well attended. The meeting was addressed by Mr. Howell, of Roanoke.

SOUTH BOSTON

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

SOUTH BOSTON, VA., October 14.—One of the swiftest events of the autumn season was the entertainment given by Mrs. R. E. Jordan on Tuesday afternoon to honor the "Main Street Euchre Club."

The rooms had been handsomely decorated with exquisite bouquets of cosmos and branches of autumn leaves of various tints, and the dainty tray cards were hand-painted, and on each score card was painted a miniature playing card.

Progressive euchre was the chief game indulged in throughout the afternoon, and as the twilight began a steal over the merry party, and reluctantly bade adieu to her hospitable hostess, declaring the event to have been a most enjoyable one.

Mrs. W. I. Jordan was congratulated upon having won the first prize, while Mrs. William H. Paulkner good naturedly accepted the trophy, promising to do better next time.

The refreshments were aside from the ordinary, and heartily partaken of. Quite a number of visitors, who were not members of the club, were present.

WARRENTON, VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
